What is the main purpose of the Istanbul Chamber of Commerce Turkish Subcontracting Exchange?

The main purpose of Istanbul Chamber of Commerce, Turkish Subcontracting and Partnership Exchange (ICOC TSPX) which is a unique industrial organization in Türkiye, is to increase the competitiveness of its members both locally and internationally, as well as meeting new main contractors and increasing their exports.

In which sectors do the companies operate in the data-base of ICOC TSPX?

The members of ICOC TSPX operate mostly in metal, plastic&rubber, electric&electronics sectors and they are generally providing service for the automotive, machinery, white goods, defense&aviation, construction sectors.

What is the number of ICOC TSPX members in its data-base?

ICOC TSPX data base includes nearly 3.500 members operating all over Türkiye.

What advantages do the members of ICOC TSPX benefit from?

Supplier Days events, finding new partners by exporting to local and foreign main contractors, matchmaking service, participation to sectoral conferences, panels, seminars and webinars, access to periodic bulletins, access to tenders from the European Nuclear Research Center (CERN) and etc. are the most important advantages TSPX provides to its members.

What are the advantages of TSPX events to its members?

TSPX members have the opportunity to find new partners, export to world giants and thus increase their turnover through Supplier Days events organized free of charge.

Which companies can apply for TSPX membership?

All Turkish manufacturing companies operating in the field of industrial subcontracting can apply for TSPX membership.

Can a supplier from out of Istanbul apply for the TSPX membership?

Suppliers all around Türkiye, which are operating in the field of industrial subcontracting can be enrolled in TSPX database.

Is there a fee for TSPX membership and participation to events organized by TSPX?

The membership of TSPX and attending its events are free of charge. All of the suppliers who are found suitable for membership can attend our events free of charge.
